Preventing Elder Abuse and Crime Education (PEACE)

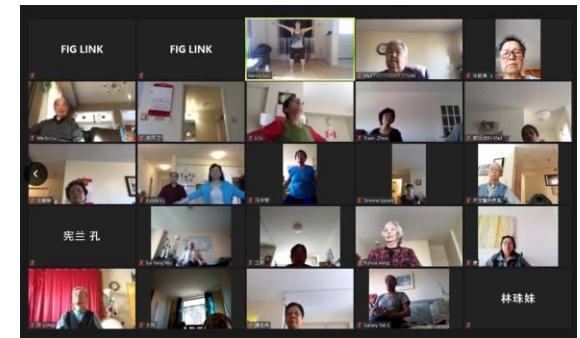

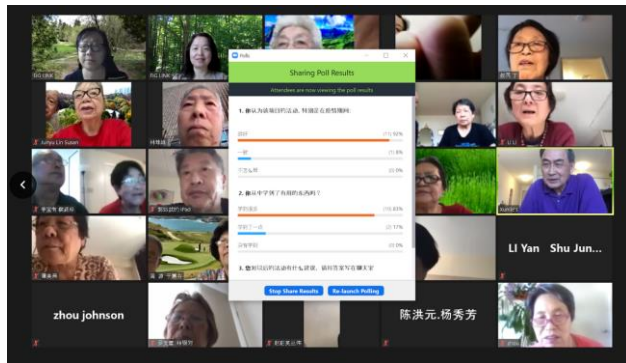

PEACE project objectives are expanding awareness of elder abuse, including financial abuse, as well as supporting the social participation and inclusion of seniors. It aims at raising awareness about the issue of elder abuse, learning how to identify elder abuse and fraud, understanding different forms of elder abuse. Using workshops, discussions and series role plays with different scenarios co-directed by staff, volunteers, seniors and performed by seniors themselves to provide seniors very practical information about how to recognize elder abuse, access to available resources, how to protect themselves, how to get help if in the situation. These plays will also perform at different events and different neighborhoods to maximum the impact in the community at large.

WoodGreen Outreach to Diverse Seniors

SHARE Project - Safety, Health, Animator, Rejoicing and Engagement

The SHARE project is to provide a friendly and meaningful platform for seniors to foster connections between generations, encourage seniors supporting each other and help seniors to build their leadership skills and assist them with active living and wellness. The SHARE project stands for Safety, Health, Animator, Rejoicing and Engagement and it will cover multifarious themes on seniors' health, safety, wellbeing, engagement and recognition in order that they can maintain in good physical and mental conditions and better integrates into the local communities.

Celebrate Canada & Multicultural Day

The Canadian multicultural Day celebration focuses on Asian especially Chinese culture. It will use QiPao performance show to represent the fullness of Chinese culture and demonstrate this history.

“I love Canada, Canada is my homeland” is the theme of Canada Day this year. Both events were delivered virtually due to COVID-19
